

Financial capability training resources for ages 11-18

We have reviewed a wide range of money matters resources and believe these provide well rounded learning.

Age	Learning	Provider
Age 11-14	It's my choice	Lloyds Bank Academy
Age 11-14	Life, work, money... How do I stay in control?	Lloyds Bank Academy
Age 11-14	Savvy shopper	Family Building Society
Age 11-14	Foreign currency	Family Building Society
Age 11-14	Money Twist	MyBnk (home learning)

Age 14-16	Making the most of what I have	Lloyds Bank Academy
Age 14-16	Risking it! ... Is it worth it?	Lloyds Bank Academy
Age 14-16	Staying safe with money online	Family Building Society
Age 14-16	Better budgeting - preparing for independence	Family Building Society

Age 16-18	Saving for the future	Family Building Society
Age 16-18	Borrowing and credit need to knows	Family Building Society
Age 16-18	Managing your money at university	MyBank
Age 16-25	Your Money - Your Future	MyBank

The following are also useful when teaching financial capability / money matters

Money Helper – an explainer providing guidance on how to talk to different ages of children and young people about money, and why it's important.

Download a free copy of the Your Money Matters: England textbook. The first-ever curriculum-mapped financial education textbook – funded by Martin and created with financial education charity Young Money.

Young Enterprise - free resources, tools and apps to aid with money matters.

Tools for young people

The King's Trust (previously the Prince's Trust) - From planning your monthly spending budget to finding the best deal at the supermarket, here are lots of handy tools to support you and your finances.